

ONE PAGER LOCKSENSE

LockSense, a powerful and user-friendly access control software solution designed to seamlessly integrate with the robust LockSense HID Aero hardware platform. LockSense empowers you to take control of your security and streamline access management for your facilities.

Built for Security and Performance

- End-to-End Security with OSDP Support
- Configurable Rules Engine
- Modular Hardware for Flexible Deployment
- Simplify access control management

Effortless Access Management with LockSense

- User-friendly interface for intuitive access control management
- Create and manage user profiles with assigned access rights
- Schedule access based on timeframes or specific needs
- Monitor access events and generate detailed reports

Enhanced Security with LockSense

- Robust security features to safeguard your facilities
- Real-time event monitoring allows for immediate response to security breaches

Scalability for Future Growth

- LockSense scales seamlessly to accommodate your growing security needs
- Add new doors and users as your business expands
- Adaptable to various facility types and access control requirements

The LockSense Advantage

- Reduced Costs
- Improved Operational Efficiency
- Mobile Access Convenience
- Integration Potential